

PSHCE

To take turns and follow instructions effectively
To listen when another pupil is speaking
To follow the social communication program

Maths

To measure ourselves and the World around us.
Make and justify estimates and approximations of large numbers; Explain methods and reasoning orally; Make general statements about patterns and relationships; Begin to find the mean of a set of data; Construct and interpret line graphs.

English

To continue to practice, improve and up-level our SPAG knowledge
Children will examine how the author modifies their language to change the emphasis in writing, using adverbials and modal verbs. The children will then use these features of language to plan and write detailed stories of their own.
Children will study poetry and create their own poems that include characters from the story

Science

Human body and sports
Explore the ways that nutrition, exercise and injury prevention impact on sports performance. Design an eating and exercise plan as well as your own warm up and warm down routine.

Computing

To understand the term algorithm
To create simple algorithms
To use repeat instructions
To create instructions for a purpose
To debug a program
To edit and improve their

J.K Rowling

Mars Topic Web - Summer Term 2
2018

Geography

To name and locate counties and cities of the United Kingdom, geographical regions and their identifying human and physical characteristics

PE

To hone our gymnastics skills K2 and make cross curricular link with our science topic

RE:

Compare the spread of Christianity across the Middle East, Africa and Europe to the spread of Islam in overlapping areas but later centuries, and create an animation, including images of specific buildings.

Art and DT

To improve our 3D modelling skills by designing and creating our own mythical beast
We will make it move through investigating cams mechanisms

Forest school:

To work as part of a team.
To build items out of nature
To keep a journal of our exploits.
To understand how to be safe in the outdoors.
To use tools safely.

History

To study a local area.
To study the area in Scotland where our author was born and compare this to our own local area