

English

To draw on and improve our knowledge of a wide variety of sentence lengths and structures, including complex sentences, and apply it to our own writing.

To demonstrate our knowledge of formal and informal writing and use this to write letters for Amnesty International
To use figurative language and develop our understanding of poetry

Science

To understand the interdependence of organisms in an ecosystem, including food webs and insect pollinated crops

To know how organisms, affect and are affected by their environment.

Music

To understand musical structures, styles, genres and traditions, identifying the expressive use of musical dimensions

To identify and use the inter-related dimensions of music expressively, including use of tonalities, different types of scales and other devices

Computing

To understand how data travels around the Internet and recognise how search engines find web pages and how to perform effective searches.

To understand how to be safe on the internet.

PSHCE

To know the 5 main British values
To know our Human Rights

British Values

Mars Topic Web - Spring Term 2018

Geography

To understand what it means to be British
To know where Britain is and who it includes
To understand how Britain fits in to the European Union
To know about parliament and how it works

Maths

To continue to improve our times tables knowledge

To investigate shapes and their properties

To begin to develop an understanding of algebra

To use co-ordinates

PE

Swimming

To go swimming each week to improve our swimming skills.

RE:

To develop a mutual respect for others and a tolerance of those with other beliefs to them

To understand religious views

Art and DT

To research print making techniques and use these to inform our work. To create lino cuts and scaffito images

Forest school:

To work as part of a team.
To build items out of nature
To keep a journal of our exploits.
To understand how to be safe in the outdoors.
To use tools safely.

History

To understand democracy and how our own parliament developed
To understand why laws are made and how they affect us
To understand how the UK came into being