

English

Reading: To summarise the main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph and identify key details that support the main ideas.

Writing: To write narratives, considering how authors have developed characters and settings

Science

To understand cells as a unit of living organisms, including how to observe, interpret and record cell structure using a light microscope.

To understand the similarities and differences between plant and animal cells.

ICT

To learn how to use animations in powerpoint to do questions and answers presentations.

To learn how to move quickly round a document in word in order to edit quickly.

To learn how to make graphs and do simple formulas in excel to illustrate data.

Music

Pupils will listen with increasing discrimination to a wide range of music from great composers and musicians.

Pupils will learn about the history of the music they listen to and perform.

Religious Education

Pupils will be learning about how monotheist religions compare.

Mercury Topic Web

China

Geography

Pupils will be learning about the geography of China to build on their knowledge of globes, maps and atlases and apply and develop this knowledge routinely in the classroom and in the field.

Maths

To solve problems involving converting between units of time

To draw given angles, and measure them in degrees

To measure and calculate the perimeter of composite rectilinear shapes in centimetres and metres

To add and subtract fractions with the same denominator and denominators that are multiples of the same number

To add and subtract fractions with the same denominator and denominators that are multiples of the same number

Art and DT

To use a range of techniques and media and increase their proficiency in the handling of different materials by learning about painting in 3D and enlarging.

Physical Education

To develop their technique and improve their performance in other competitive sports - gymnastics

PSHCE

Pupils will be learning about sex and relationships.

History

Pupils will be learning about the 100 years war and how it changed Britain.